

Can you relate to any of these scenarios?

- ❖ You frequently open your 'full to bursting' wardrobe and find yourself thinking "I have nothing to wear".
- ❖ You feel stuck in a rut - always wearing or buying the same styles.
- ❖ You are unsure what colours suit you or styles work for your body shape.
- ❖ You have reached a new phase in your life and need a little extra guidance.
- ❖ You have lost your way with make-up and would benefit from some hints and tips.

Having the knowledge to choose the right colours and styles will boost your self esteem, improve your appearance and save you money.
